Sir,

With due respect, we, the members of the Teachers' Council of your institution, do hereby submit our Annual Feedback concerning Teaching, Learning and Evaluation for the session 2013-14 as follows:

Item 01. The relationship of the teachers with the students remains sound. The teachers have been continuing to provide both academic and psychological counsels to the students. The interface inside and outside the classroom stands healthy.

Item 02. Breaking the University syllabus into modules has ushered in greater conveniences in the teaching-learning process. The tutorial classes have borne fruitful results for the advancement of the slow learners.

Item 03. Departmental libraries with a sizeable number of text and reference books need to be launched for each academic department.

Thanks and regards,

Sincerely yours,

Sir,

With due respect, we, the members of the Teachers' Council of your institution, do hereby submit our Annual Feedback concerning Teaching, Learning and Evaluation for the session 2014-15 as follows:

Item 01. The relationship of the teachers with the students remains sound. The teachers have been continuing to provide both academic and psychological counsels to the students. The interface inside and outside the classroom stands healthy.

Item 02. Our conventional methods of teaching have been successfully complemented by more innovative performances like Group Discussion and Seminar presentations.

Item 03. The Seminar series organized by the Department of Bengali involving the active participation of teachers and students of other departments has been inspiring for the betterment of the teaching-learning ambience. Such seminars need to be organized in greater numbers in the forth-coming sessions.

Item 04. The Teachers' Council congratulates the IQAC and the College Authority for the successful organisation of a One-Day UGC-Sponsored National Level Seminar convened by the Department of Hindi.

Item 05. It may, however, be suggested that the College Authority might consider increasing the number of class-rooms inside the campus.

Sir,

With due respect, We, the members of the Teachers' Council of your institution, do hereby submit our Annual Feedback concerning Teaching, Learning and Evaluation for the session 2016-17 as follows:

Item 01. The relationship of the teachers with the students remains sound. The teachers have been continuing to provide both academic and psychological counsels to the students. The interface inside and outside the classroom stands healthy.

Item 02. The Teachers' Council welcomes the introduction of CBCS, instead of the old Three Year Degree Course (1+1+1) of Studies, introduced by the Kazi Nazrul University. However, the council also feels the need of the teachers and students for more orientation from the University.

Item 03 The Teachers' Council unanimously decides to opt for Viva Voice examination as the mode of Internal Assessment for the students coming under the new CBCS.

Item 04. The Teachers' Council feels the urge for digitized and automated operational system in the College Library.

Item 05. The Teachers' Council conveys its need for high-speed internet connection for the computer in the Teachers' Room.

Item 06. The Teachers' Council hails Prof. Sadiya Pravin, Assistant Professor in Hindi, and Prof. Dhiren Mandi, Assistant Professor in Sanskrit as new members in the institutional family.
